Hondon de las Nieves (El Fondó de les Neus in Valenciano) is a municipality in the Vinalopó area in the province of Valencià. It is a small village, inland, west of the Alacant province. Its nearest city is Elche to the south east or Crevillent. The population is over 2,600 people. Hondón de las Nieves (gorge of the Snows) is named after the "Virgin of the Snow" the town's religious icon, and the village church was built in her honour.

Hondon de las Nieves and its neighbour Hondon De Los Frailes are both typical Spanish agricultural villages which have changed very little over the years. The area is renowned for its fine table wines.

The village has everything you need for day to day living. There are bars and restaurants, shops, bakers, butchers and supermarkets. Alicante airport and beaches are just 30 minutes away.
